Guidelines for Museum of Florida History Quilt Display

The Museum of Florida History has final authority in determining what materials are acceptable for display in the Museum Gallery. The Museum staff will use careful consideration of each object when determining acceptance for display. Entries that contain subjects that may cause offense to certain segments of the public because they may be controversial, racist, or defamatory in character may be excluded from exhibit. In addition, the Museum may exclude certain entries due to physical condition or inability to appropriately exhibit the piece.

I have read and accept the entry procedures of Quilters Unlimited of Tallahassee for the quilt show. I understand the entries are accepted at the discretion of the Quilt Show Committee for use at the Museum of Florida History. The Show Committee will decide the format of the display. I understand that I may not pick up my entry early. I understand that all items received will receive reasonable care. They will be covered by insurance at all times.

I would appreciate a quilt judge's comments on this quilt. Yes _____ No _____
